MEDIA RELEASE

NEW Executive Director for the Brewers Association

Statement from Dr Tim Cooper
Chair of the Brewers Association of Australia &
New Zealand

The Board of the Brewers Association of Australia & New Zealand is pleased to announce Mr Tim Reardon has been appointed the organisation's new Executive Director.

Mr Reardon has most recently represented the electricity industry and has also represented a number of other industries at both the Commonwealth and State levels for 15 years.

The Brewers Association represents Australia's major brewers in legislative and regulatory affairs and is committed to building a positive drinking culture.

The members of the Brewers Association look forward to Mr Reardon leading the organisation into the future and ensuring the views of the industry are represented strongly.

Mr Reardon commenced his new position this week.
